

September 23, 2018

Led by the Holy Spirit, LaGrave's members seek to worship and serve God in all of life, transforming His world and being transformed to reflect the character of Christ.

Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below, noting that we use two different red hymnals. The Worship & Rejoice hymnal will be indicated by bold, italic type. An asterisk (*) denotes standing for those who are able. We are glad that you are here. Let us worship God together.

Other refuge have I none; hangs my helpless soul on thee; leave, ah! leave me not alone, still support and comfort me. All my trust on thee is stayed, all my help from thee I bring; cover my defenseless head with the shadow of thy wing.

Thou, O Christ, art all I want; more than all in thee I find. Raise the fallen, cheer the faint, heal the sick and lead the blind. Just and holy is thy name; I am all unrighteousness. False and full of sin I am; thou art full of truth and grace.

Plenteous grace on thee is found, grace to cover all my sin. Let the healing streams abound; make and keep me pure within. Thou of life the fountain art; freely let me take of thee. Spring thou up within my heart. Rise to all eternity. Amen.

Music at LaGrave (8:40): English-born Philip W. J. Stopford (b. 1977) is fast becoming a leading composer of sacred choral music. He is currently director of music at Christ Church in Bronxville, New York. Among his many beautiful choral anthems is a 2015 setting of Charles Wesley's 1740 hymn text Jesus, Lover of My Soul. Stopford's gift of composing flowing, lyrical melodic lines and rich harmony is apparent in each verse. Note also the text-painting used near the conclusion of the anthem on the word “rise” as the voices rise in pitch, after which a quiet and peaceful “Amen” brings the anthem to a close.

The September special offering is for the Pregnancy Resource Center which provides education, counseling and services at no cost to the recipients. Through their programs, the Pregnancy Resource Center lives out their mission “to show the truth that all people matter to God.”

This evening, Rev. Kathy Smith, Professor of Church Polity at Calvin Theological Seminary will be preaching on Philippians 4:4-7. Her sermon is titled “God's Antidote to Our Worry.”
