

September 30, 2018

Led by the Holy Spirit, LaGrave's members seek to worship and serve God in all of life, transforming His world and being transformed to reflect the character of Christ.

Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below, noting that we use two different red hymnals. The Worship & Rejoice hymnal will be indicated by bold, italic type. An asterisk (*) denotes standing for those who are able. We are glad that you are here. Let us worship God together.

EVENING WORSHIP 6:00 PM

Please prepare your heart and mind for worship with a time of prayer and meditation.

The Prelude:

“Nigerian Prayer” (Oba a ba ke) Fela Sowande
The King of heaven whom we should cherish, we do not cherish, the Savior of mankind whom we should serve, we do not serve;
Jesus whom we should worship, he is the very one the world derides and abuses. Lord of the rainbow, forgive us our offences, for the sake of Jesus, grant us pardon.

God will establish us, keeping his covenant, which will extend to each nation and race: God's law will dwell in the hearts of his people; they will be blessed with his favor and grace.

We remember, God, your covenant, which extends from heaven to earth; how Christ's death and resurrection conquers sin, renews our birth. Thank you for this gospel message, which inspires your church to preach grace to every generation in our deeds and in our speech.

Lord, we offer you our worship as we celebrate your grace which you shower on your people gathered here and every place. Blessed by water, Word, and table, we, your church, now pledge to share grace through every generation in our witness, work, and prayer.

Ordinary Time – the Season after Pentecost

Ordinary time is the longest time of the liturgical year. The colors used for Ordinary Time are green and blue. The green symbolizes growth. The blue symbolizes the color of water which is necessary for growth. It is a time for growth in our spiritual lives and in our service to the mission of the church.
