

October 14, 2018

Led by the Holy Spirit, LaGrave's members seek to worship and serve God in all of life, transforming His world and being transformed to reflect the character of Christ.

Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below, noting that we use two different red hymnals. The Worship & Rejoice hymnal will be indicated by bold, italic type. An asterisk (*) denotes standing for those who are able. We are glad that you are here. Let us worship God together.

We Approach God with Penitence

The Call to Confession: Ephesians 6:1-4 (pg. 1820)

The Prayer of Confession:

Heavenly Father,

you arrange our families with wisdom beyond our own – calling parents to instruct children with faithfulness and love; calling children of all ages to honor parents, and children who are still growing to obey them.

We lament the ways family relationships have gone wrong.

When we as parents misuse our authority to train your children, forgive us.

When we as children disregard our parents, forgive us.

Bring righteousness and peace to our families; make our relationships microcosms of your grace.

In Christ's name, amen.

concluded with

Lift Up Your Hearts 864:1,4 “Holy Spirit, Truth Divine”

The Assurance of Pardon:

There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit who gives life has set us free from the law of sin and death.

Friends, believe the good news of the gospel:

in Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

*The Hymn of Commitment:

“In Our Households, Heavenly Father”

1. In our households, heavenly Father, bless the bonds that make us one. May our love reflect your loving, may your will be always done. Send your Spirit to inspire us and to teach your discipline. May our acts and conversations show your peace and joy within.

2. And in single life or married, make us open to your call to encourage, comfort others, and show love to one and all. Help us make our homes a haven, quick with hospitality. Move us, Lord, to serve each other with true love and charity.

Music at LaGrave (8:40)

English composer Bob Chilcott’s hymn It Is a Thing Most Wonderful is from an extended choral piece titled St. John

Passion, patterned after J. S. Bach’s Passions in which the story of Christ’s death is shared through an evangelist singing the narration and the choir singing commentary through hymns and chorales. William Walsham How (1823-1897) is the author of the text. Known as the “poor man’s bishop” and “the children’s bishop,” he was known for his work among the destitute in London slums. How wrote some sixty hymns, including many for children.

The October special offering is for Next Step. Next Step is a faith-based nonprofit employing people coming out of prison or rehab and providing them with a community of support that will help them integrate into the workforce, regain hope, and empower themselves to create a better future.

This evening, Rev. Peter Jonker will preach on 2 Corinthians 13:11-13. His sermon is titled “The Holy Kiss.”
