

February 17, 2019

Led by the Holy Spirit, LaGrave's members seek to worship and serve God in all of life, transforming His world and being transformed to reflect the character of Christ.

Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below, noting that we use two different red hymnals. With anthems of thanksgiving, and notes of harmony, I'll sound my alleluias, most gracious God, to thee; for thou art my Creator who gave me voice to sing, so unto thee forever my praise I'll bring.

Music at LaGrave (11:00)

English church musician Barry Rose writes of Christopher Steel’s anthem Thou Art the Way: “Here is . . . a strong, logical, and memorable tune, with some more ‘modern’ effects being created by adventurous chords in the accompaniment. The musical construction allows the text to grow in intensity until the major key of the last verse, which gathers together ‘the Way, the Truth and the Life.’ In writing this text, author Bishop George Washington Doane (1799-1859) may have received inspiration from John 14 and George Herbert’s poem, Come, My Way, My Truth, My Life.

The designated offering for the month of February is Wedgwood Christian Services. Wedgwood extends God's love to youth and families through professional counseling and educational services. They are a distinctively Christian, professionally excellent community of caring, dedicated to helping young people develop the ability to live secure and productive lives. For over 50 years, they've been extending God's love to children, adults, and families through professional services that promote healing and wholeness. 85% of the troubled youth served in Wedgwood's residential programs successfully complete treatment, and go on to live lives filled with meaning and purpose.

Tonight Rev. Peter Jonker will preach on Psalm 23. His sermon is entitled, “New Treasure from Old Places.”

The Season from Christmas to Lent: From Christmas until the beginning of Lent is the liturgical season of Epiphany. The colors of gold and white symbolize this time of joy and thanksgiving. We celebrate Jesus Christ as the manifestation of God’s light in our dark and sin-filled world. It is a time to grow in our knowledge of Jesus Christ and reflect his light in our lives.

Livestreaming worship is available at lagrave.org.
