

April 14, 2019

Palm Sunday

Led by the Holy Spirit, LaGrave's members seek to worship and serve God in all of life, transforming His world and being transformed to reflect the character of Christ.

Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below, noting that we use two different red hymnals. The Worship & Rejoice hymnal will be indicated by bold, italic type. An asterisk (*) denotes standing for those who are able. We are glad that you are here. Let us worship God together.

Music at LaGrave (8:40)

American composer Allen Pote's (b. 1945) new choral setting based on Matthew 21:9 evokes the pomp and excitement of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Driving energy, constant syncopation in the vocal parts, and a shifting meter (1-2-3, 1-2-3, 1-2) in the piano accompaniment contribute to the festivity of the procession. With over 75 published anthems to his credit, Pote is a full-time composer and also directs the Pensacola Children's Chorus, a choir of over 200 that has received national recognition.

The flowers today are in loving memory of Henry & Clara Beets, Clarence & Anne Beets, and Bill Kuiper given by Jerry & Jessica VanderWall.

The designated offering for the month of April is for Family Promise. Homelessness...one family at a time. Family Promise is an organization committed to giving parents the hope and encouragement they need to create a better future for their kids and end the cycle of homelessness. Through their emergency shelter, housing services, home ownership opportunities and aftercare services, they have helped over 1,000 families build a stronger future.

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of the last week of Jesus life on earth. Purple, the color of royalty, is used in the paraments and banners. It symbolizes the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. The palm branches symbolize the greeting the people gave Jesus, the King.

This evening, for our service of prayers for healing, Rev. Ruth Boven will preach on Mark 2:1-12. Her sermon is entitled, "Intercessory Faith." This service includes a special prayer time during which pastors and elders are available to pray for your specific needs or prayer requests. Prayer Request cards are available at the Welcome Center this morning and will also be in the evening Order of Worship bulletin. We will also select, by lot, new elders and deacons after the postlude.

Livestreaming worship is available at lagrave.org.
