

April 28, 2019
GEMS SUNDAY

Led by the Holy Spirit, LaGrave's members seek to worship and serve God in all of life, transforming His world and being transformed to reflect the character of Christ.

Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below, noting that we use two different red hymnals. The Worship & Rejoice hymnal will be indicated by bold, italic type. An asterisk denotes standing for those who are able. We are glad that you are here. Let us worship God together.

Music at LaGrave

For 18 years, English composer and singer Philip Lawson (b. 1957) was a member of and principal arranger for the King’s Singers. He is now a free-lance composer working at the Wells and Salisbury Cathedral Schools and a vocal teacher at the University of Bristol, England. His simple, yet beautiful, setting of the familiar hymn Take My Life and Let It Be combines unison singing, three-part harmony, and a final stanza descant which rises above the lyrical melody.

The flowers in the chancel are given by Joady Hoekstra, John & Shelly (Johnny, Sam) Schat; Jon & Jamie (Ally, James) VanHekken in loving memory of Jim Hoekstra, a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather.

The designated offering for the month of April is for Family Promise. Homelessness...one family at a time. Family Promise is an organization committed to giving parents the hope and encouragement they need to create a better future for their kids and end the cycle of homelessness. Through their emergency shelter, housing services, home ownership opportunities and aftercare services, they have helped over 1,000 families build a stronger future.

Tonight, Rev. Jonker will be preaching on Philippians 3:7-14. His sermon is entitled: “Attaining the Resurrection.”

Livestreaming worship is available at lagrave.org.
