Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below. An asterick (*) denotes standing for those who are able. We are glad that you are here. Let us worship God together.

The Introit:

“Let Heavenly Music Fill This Place”

Gordon Young

Let heavenly music fill this place and all the harmonies of heaven be heard; let one grand song of praise resound, one alleluia! Let mighty organs peal and roll and choirs invisible be heard; let anthems grand now thrill my soul, one alleluia! O may we join the heavenly choir that through the ages will sing on; in praise to Father and to Son, one alleluia!

What does the fourth petition mean?

“Give us this day our daily bread” means:

Do take care of all our physical needs so that we come to know that you are the only source of everything good, and that neither our work and worry nor your gifts can do us any good without your blessing. And so help us to give up our trust in creatures and trust in you alone.

*The Hymn: Lift Up Your Hearts 369

“My Shepherd Will Supply My Need”

The Pastoral Prayer

Concluded with:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth,

as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Offertory Anthem:

“Canticle of Praise”

John Ness Beck

As a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. For he knoweth our frame; he remembreth that we are dust. As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth, for the wind passeth over it, and it is gone. And the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting to them that fear him, to such as keep his covenants. The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom ruleth over all. Praise ye the Lord! Praise ye the Lord from the heavens! Praise him in the heights! Praise ye him, all his angels. Praise ye him, all his hosts. Praise ye him, sun and moon, praise him, all ye stars of light. Praise the Lord from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps: fire and hail, snow and vapours, stormy wind fulfilling his word! Kings of earth, and all people, princes and all judges of the earth, young men and maidens, old men and children, let them praise the name of the Lord! For his name alone is excellent, his glory is above the earth and heaven. Praise ye the Lord!

from Psalms 103 and 148
