

January 24, 2021

Led by the Holy Spirit, LaGrave's members seek to worship and serve God in all of life, transforming His world and being transformed to reflect the character of Christ.

Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below, noting that we use two different red hymnals. The Worship & Rejoice hymnal will be indicated by bold, italic type. An asterisk (*) denotes standing for those who are able. We are glad that you are here. Let us worship God together.

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

Against you, you alone, have I sinned, and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are justified in your sentence and blameless when you pass judgment.

You desire truth in the inward being; therefore teach me wisdom in my secret heart.

Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me.

Do not cast me from your presence, and do not take your holy spirit from me.

Psalm 51:1-4, 6, 9-11, NRSV

Prayer concluded with:

Lord, I want to be more holy in my heart, in my heart;

Take my hands and let them move at the impulse of thy love. Take my feet and let them be swift and beautiful for thee.

Take my voice and let me sing always, only, for my King. Take my lips and let them be filled with messages from thee.

*Take my will and make it thine; it shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart, it is thine own; it shall be thy royal throne.

Take myself and I will be ever, only, all for thee.*

Music at LaGrave:

Throughout history, many composers have written pieces for the organ titled Benedictus, meaning blessing, or blessed. Several, particularly those composed by British organists, have been played throughout the current Sermon on the Mount sermon series, paralleling the opening Beatitudes. Alec Rowley (1892-1958) taught music at Trinity College in London. He wrote two pieces by this title. Like many others composed by his contemporaries, the piece begins quietly, then builds in volume and intensity, and concludes peacefully.

The January special offering is for ICCF (Inner City Christian Federation) which provides housing opportunities, home ownership counseling, home repairs and maintenance for families who otherwise cannot afford a home.

Tonight, Dr John Rottman, a member of our congregation and a professor at Calvin Seminary where he teaches Homiletics (the study of preaching), will be preaching on Jeremiah 31:7-14. His sermon is titled: “Not Your End.”

The liturgical season of Epiphany is a time of joy and thanksgiving. We celebrate Jesus Christ who is the manifestation of God’s light in our dark and sin-filled world. And as we grow in our knowledge of Jesus, we are called to reflect his light in our lives.

Livestreaming worship is available at lagrave.org.
