

April 18, 2021

Led by the Holy Spirit, LaGrave's members seek to worship and serve God in all of life, transforming His world and being transformed to reflect the character of Christ.

Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below, noting that we use two different red hymnals. The Worship & Rejoice hymnal will be indicated by bold, italic type. An asterisk (*) denotes standing for those who are able. We are glad that you are here. Let us worship God together.

“Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing”

arr. Paul S. Jones

Come thou Fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace; streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise. Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above. Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it, mount of thy redeeming love.

Here I raise my Ebenezer, hither by thy help I'm come; and I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home. Jesus sought me when a stranger, wand'ring from the fold of God: he, to rescue me from danger, interposed his precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be! Let that grace now, like a fetter, bind my wand'ring heart to thee: prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love; here's my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

Music at LaGrave

Robert Robinson was “prone to wander.” He did not grow up a Christian, but was converted in 1755 after hearing a sermon by George Whitefield on “The Wrath to Come” and afterward became a minister. He wrote Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing while in his 20s. Sadly, later in life, he lost his faith and became a Unitarian. Paul S. Jones' solo arrangement slightly alters both the rhythm and the melody resulting in an interesting, yet beautiful rendering of this beloved hymn.

The April special offering is for Family Promise of Grand Rapids. Family Promise partners with local congregations, individuals, families, foundations and corporations to provide emergency shelter and case management for families with children facing a housing crisis.

This evening, Reverend Jonker will preach from Hebrews 13:20-21. His sermon title is, "Finding God's Will."

Livestreaming worship is available at lagrave.org.
