

June 27, 2021

Led by the Holy Spirit, LaGrave's members seek to worship and serve God in all of life, transforming His world and being transformed to reflect the character of Christ.

Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below, noting that we use two different red hymnals. The Worship & Rejoice hymnal will be indicated by bold, italic type. An asterisk (*) denotes standing for those who are able. We are glad that you are here. Let us worship God together.

We Humbly Approach God

The Call to Confession: Galatians 6:3-5, 7-10, 14-15

The Prayer of Confession:

We confess, Father, that we have given more weight to our successes and our happiness than to your will. We have been so concerned with making a living that we have missed the life you set among us. Forgive us, gracious God. Set us free from a past that we cannot change; open to us a future in which we can be changed; and grant us grace to grow more and more in your likeness and image; through Jesus Christ, the light of the world. Amen.

The Assurance of Forgiveness:

What do you believe concerning “the forgiveness of sins”?
I believe that God, because of Christ's satisfaction, will no longer remember any of my sins or my sinful nature which I need to struggle against all my life.

Rather, by grace God grants me the righteousness of Christ to free me forever from judgment.

“Lord, Here Am I”

John Ness Beck

Master, thou callest, I gladly obey; only direct me, and I'll find thy way. Teach me the mission appointed for me, what is my labor, and where it shall be.

Refrain: Master thou callest, and this I reply, “Ready and willing, Lord, here am I.”

Willing, my Savior, to take up the cross; willing to suffer reproaches and loss; willing to follow, if thou will but lead; only support me with grace in my need. (Refrain)

Living or dying, I still would be thine, yet I am mortal while thou art divine. Pardon, whenever I turn from the right; pity, and bring me again to the light. (Refrain)

Jessica Klooster is a graduate of Calvin University where she sang in the Capella. She remains active as a soloist and is a member of First Reformed Church in Holland. Welcome to worship at LaGrave, Jessica, and thank you for your music ministry.

Ordinary Time is the liturgical season from Pentecost to Advent. The banners and parament for the time reflect concepts from Psalm 1. Like trees firmly rooted in the stream, we strive to be firmly rooted in God's Word. By doing so, we find life, experience deep spiritual growth, and live grateful lives.

Music at LaGrave:

The text Master, Thou Callest (Lord, Here Am I) was penned by 19th-century blind hymn-writer, Fanny Crosby. Echoing Isaiah 6:8, the text is a prayer of response to Christ's call to service, mission, and kingdom work. Willing to suffer reproach or loss, in all our labor and leisure, we are called to take up our cross and follow Christ. At the conclusion of each verse, composer John Ness Beck creates an ascending melodic line, reaching a climax on the words "Ready and willing, Lord, here am I."

The special offering for June is for Cherry Health: An independent, non-profit Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) with a primary focus of providing high quality health services to those who have little or no access to health care, regardless of income or insurance status. Cherry Health is the largest FQHC in the State of Michigan providing integrated health care services at more than 20 locations throughout the State.

This evening, guest minister Reverend Jon Opgenorth, director of Words of Hope, will preach on Romans 10:1-17. His sermon is titled "Who's In?"
