

August 22, 2021

Led by the Holy Spirit, LaGrave's members seek to worship and serve God in all of life, transforming His world and being transformed to reflect the character of Christ.

Welcome to worship at LaGrave. Because our worship proceeds without announcements, please carefully follow the order of worship printed below, noting that we use two different red hymnals. The Worship & Rejoice hymnal will be indicated by bold, italic type. An asterisk (*) denotes standing for those who are able. We are glad that you are here. Let us worship God together.

MORNING WORSHIP 8:40 AM & 11:00 AM

Please prepare your heart and mind for worship with a time of prayer and meditation.

The Welcome

We Humbly Approach God

The Call to Confession: Psalm 65:8

The Prayer of Confession:

Father, you perform wondrous deeds in creation—magnificent sunrises, stunning sunsets, powerful thunderstorms, pounding waves, and a vast variety of trees and flowers—yet we sometimes fail to notice your hand in the midst of it all.

Lord, have mercy.

Father, you bless us with the wonder of changing seasons, of regular patterns of night and day, of sun, moon, and stars that reside in their proper places – yet we sometimes fail to notice your hand in the midst of it all.

Lord, show us your mercy.

Father, you move in wondrous ways in the birth of a new child, in the joy of belonging to a loving family, and in the undeserved kindness we receive from others – yet we sometimes fail to notice your hand in the midst of it all.

Lord, shower us with your mercy.

Father, we take a moment in silence to think of all the wondrous things you continue to do in our lives and in the world around us...Fill us with gratitude and joy, Father, for all your wonderful gifts, including the best gift of all, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Assurance of Forgiveness: Psalm 65:1-3

The Pastoral Prayer

The Anthem:

"Your Hands, O Lord, in Days of Old" Arr. Peter Niedmann

Your hands, O Lord, in days of old were strong to heal and save; They triumphed over pain and death, fought darkness and the grave. To you they went, the blind, the mute, the palsied and the lame, the leper set apart and shunned, the sick and those in shame.

And then your touch brought life and health, gave speech, and strength, and sight; And youth renewed and health restored, claimed you, the Lord of light: And so, O Lord, be near to bless, Almighty now as then, in every street, in every home, in every troubled friend.

O be our mighty healer still, O Lord of life and death; Restore and strengthen, soothe and bless, with your almighty breath: On hands that work and eyes that see, your healing wisdom pour, that whole and sick, and weak and strong, may praise you ever more.

Ordinary Time, the longest liturgical season, is a season of spiritual growth. The banners and parament for this season reflect concepts from Isaiah 12:2-3. We come to know the Lord more deeply as our strength and our salvation as we grow by being rooted in God's word. With joy we draw from that well of salvation.

The beautiful flowers on the chancel today have been given in memory of the life of Sher Engbers.

The special offering for the month of August is for Home Repair Services of West Michigan. This organization offers educational and repair services for vulnerable Kent County homeowners.

This evening, Reverend Jonker will preach on Genesis 40.

Livestreaming worship is available at lagrave.org.
