*The Confession:

“Affirmation: Come, Lord Jesus”
We long for that day
when our bodies are raised,
the Lord wipes away our tears,
and we dwell forever in the presence of God.
We will take our place in the new creation,

where there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain,
and the Lord will be our light.
Come, Lord Jesus, come.

On that day
we will see our Savior face to face, sacrificed Lamb and triumphant King,
just and gracious.
He will set all things right,
judge evil, and condemn the wicked.
We face that day without fear,
for the Judge is our Savior,
whose shed blood declares us righteous.
We live confidently,
anticipating his coming,
offering him our daily lives—
our acts of kindness,
our loyalty, and our love—knowing that he will weave even our sins and sorrows into his sovereign purpose.
Come, Lord Jesus, come.

With the whole creation
we join the song:
“Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain,
to receive power and wealth
and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!”
He has made us a kingdom of priests
to serve our God,
and we will reign on earth.
God will be all in all,
righteousness and peace will flourish, everything will be made new,
and every eye will see at last that our world belongs to God.
Hallelujah! Come, Lord Jesus!

Our World Belongs to God, para. 56,57,58

“Within the Shelter of the Lord”

Prayer concluded by singing:

God answers every cry for help; his love is ours till journey’s end—however long our lives may be, on God’s firm promise we depend. Who knows what dangers we are spared, since angels guard the way we take? And all who trust and love the Lord he pledges never to forsake.

Ordinary Time, the longest liturgical season, is a season of spiritual growth. The banners and parament for this season reflect concepts from Isaiah 12:2-3. We come to know the Lord more deeply as our strength and our salvation. With joy we grow spiritually by being rooted in God’s word.

We welcome Reverend Galen Meyer this evening. Galen and Thelma are members of LaGrave. Galen taught at South Christian High School for many years. He served as a military chaplain and was also the editor of The Banner.

The special offering for the month of July is for Westminster Food Pantry. The downtown food pantry provides an emergency supply of food and personal care items to people in need while also promoting self-sufficiency through referrals and education.
