“Remembering with Love and Hope”

Remembering with love and hope,
we celebrate the feast.

Christ bids us come and dine with him,
our Host and great High Priest.

God’s Word made known in flesh and blood,
a covenant of grace--

in manger, cross, and empty tomb,
we see God’s loving face.

Through all our lives, Lord, you are near--
and to the end of time.

In bread and cup yourself you give;
our life in yours we find.

We break the bread and bless the cup;
your Spirit is outpoured.

Made one in you, we feast in love
until you come, O Lord.

We trust this pledge of your strong love
and pray your kingdom come,
when face to face we’ll feast with you
in our eternal home.

“When I Survey the Wondrous Cross”

When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of glory died,
my richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast save in the death of Christ, my God!
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them through his blood.

(over)

See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
that were a present far too small.
Love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
