Then Judah went up to Joseph and said: "Please, do not be angry with me, though you are equal to Pharaoh himself. If my father sees that Benjamin isn't with us, he will die. If we do this, we will bring the gray head of our father down to the grave in sorrow."

"Now then, please let me remain here as your slave in place of the boy, and let the boy return with his brothers. How can we go back to our father if the boy is not with us? No! Do not let us see the misery that would come upon our father."
