“They are to be treated as hired workers or temporary residents among you; they are to work for you until the Year of Jubilee.

Then they and their children are to be released, and they will go back to their own clans and to the property of their ancestors.

Because the Israelites are My servants, whom I brought out of Egypt, they must not be sold as slaves.

Do not rule over them ruthlessly, but fear your God.”

The Year of Jubilee

God declared that the Israelites must observe the 50th year as a Year of Jubilee. This was to be a year of rest for the land, for returning property to the original owners, for cancelling debts and for freeing bondservants. What did God say the Israelites must do at the Year of Jubilee?
