

So the Philistines ... stopped invading Israel's territory.

Connect the dots.

Throughout Samuel's lifetime, the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines. Towns that had been captured from Israel were restored to Israel, and ... there was peace. ...

Samuel continued as Israel's leader all the days of his life. He traveled from city to city judging Israel, but he always went back home to Ramah, where he held court and built an altar to the LORD.

The Ark of the LORD

The men of a certain city came and took the ark of the LORD to Abinadab's house. It remained guarded there for 20 years. Then all the people of Israel turned back to the LORD.

When they had come together ... they fasted and there they confessed, "We have sinned against the LORD." Then the Israelites heard that the Philistines were about to attack them, and they were afraid. They said to Samuel, "Do not stop crying out to the LORD our God for us, that He may rescue us from the _____ of the Philistines."

Then Samuel made an offering to the LORD. He cried out to the LORD on Israel's behalf, and the LORD answered him. ...
